

PENINSULA SYMPHONIC WINDS

PRESS RELEASE: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 26, 2018

PENINSULA SYMPHONIC WINDS ANNOUNCES MARCH 17 CONCERT

Dr. Berkeley Price, newly selected music director for the Peninsula Symphonic Winds, will lead the group's first concert of 2018 on Saturday, March 17, at the Salvation Army facility in Torrance. The concert will begin at 3:00 PM and will include Overture to Candide, The Winds of Poseidon from The Odyssey (Symphony #2), Gandalf (The Wizard) from Symphony No.1 "Lord of the Rings," Danny Boy, and The Beatles: Love.

Dr. Price, Dean of Fine Arts at El Camino College, served as the Chair of Performing Arts, Professor of Music, and Band Director at Antelope Valley College and remains active as a clarinet soloist and chamber musician. He earned both Master and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees as a Teaching Fellow at the Eastman School of Music. Solo and ensemble tours have taken him to Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Ukraine, China, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, Panama, and throughout the USA.

The March 17 concert will be the band's first at the Salvation Army facility, which is located at 4223 Emerald Street in Torrance. Admission is $10 for adults, and children 12 and under are free with an adult. Plenty of parking is available across the street from the facility. See www.pswinds.org for more information.

The Peninsula Symphonic Winds is a 50-member community band established in 1996 that gives four to five concerts per year. The band rehearses on Wednesday evenings at Harbor College and offers local musicians the opportunity to maintain and improve their musical skills. Community members who play a wind or percussion instrument are welcome to join.
